York Street
N. Kensington
7th December 1916

Dear Sir,

In reply to your inquiry
I am pleased to inform you in regard to my son E. W. Harris as follows :-

He is a private in A. Company 50th Battalion A. I. F.

He was wounded on September
3rd (between Poyres & Mouquet Farm).

He has been since then in the Graylingwell Military Hospital, near Cheekester.

I am pleased to say that his wound was "slight" (in the knee) & that he writes in good spirits Thanking you for your kindly inquiry. Yours faithfully
Wilfred Harris
