

Advertiser, July 22nd, 1910.

Many in Adelaide will be glad to hear about the doings at Cambridge of Mr. Willie Bragg, son of Professor Bragg. Last March he gained a £100 scholarship for three years at Trinity College, although at the time of examination he was ill and had to do his papers in his own rooms. Last month he went in for part I. of the mathematical tripos, and obtained a first class.