

STEVENSON, WALTER FREDERICK—Continued.

as second-lieutenant 31st August, fought with it at Ypres, Passchendaele, Messines and Villers-Bretonneux, where wounded 8th August, 1918. Rejoining battn. 20th October, served until demobilisation. Promoted lieutenant, 21st January, 1918. Awarded M.C.* for work at Ypres and Mentioned in Despatches.

Early education at King's College, Goulburn, and Sydney Church of England Grammar School.

* " For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in taking out a daylight patrol over a distance of 600 yards and definitely locating the enemy line. He cleared a ' pill-box ' containing ten of the enemy, capturing five, killing three and wounding two. Then, coming under heavy fire, he succeeded in bringing his patrol through with only one casualty and rendered a useful intelligence report."—London Gazette, 22nd April, 1918.