S. J. Johnston Esq

Dear Sir -

In reply to your request.

You will find enclosed a photograph of Private William Joseph Kelly who was a student of pharmacy at the University at the time he enlisted August 1914. After 3 years and 8 months service he was killed on 17th April 1918.
He was in the 14th Battalion and was among the first to go to Gallipoli. He took part in the battles of the Peninsula and afterwards in France where he was killed.

I remain

Sincerely yours

W. J. Kelly

P.S. He served his apprenticeship with Mr Honey
Chemist, William Street, City. WJK
