

SMALL, WILLIAM JOHN.

Laboratory Assistant in Charge, Agriculture : Sick Berth
Steward, R.A.N.

Enlisting in August, 1914, and sailing immediately with Naval hospital ship "Grantala", served at the capture of German New Guinea and in operations in Pacific, returning in 1915, services remaining available until six months after the end of the War.

Education at Latchmere School, London.