

McLEOD, HECTOR REGINALD—Continued.

at Passchendaele, Somme, Villers-Bretonneux and till demobilisation, though slightly wounded in August, 1918.

Promoted lieutenant 1st August, 1917. Awarded M.C.* when Signal Officer at Morlancourt and Mentioned in Despatches.

Early education at Sydney Grammar School.

* “ After heavy bombardment had cut his lines in 38 places he succeeded in keeping up communication between battalion headquarters and an advanced report centre, and, when signallers at the latter had been wounded, he worked the lines himself.”—London Gazette, 12th September, 1918.