

MACKENZIE, WILLIAM KENNETH SEAFORTH—Continued.

Havre, from 16th November to 15th December and then formed Australian Infantry Base Depot, commanding it till 21st June, 1918. Attached to 23rd Battn. from 23rd July to 21st December during the Great Advance from Villers-Bretonneux through Péronne and Mont St. Quentin to Hindenburg Line, returning as C.O. troopship "Orca", for demobilisation. Awarded D.S.O. 1st January, 1918, and Russian Imperial Order of St. Stanislaus (3rd Class with swords), and Mentioned in Despatches thrice.

N.S.W. Scottish Rifles and 25th Battn., A.M.F., 16½ years.

Colonel (Hon.), Retired List, 27th February, 1928.

Early education at St. Mark's (Darling Point) Preparatory and Sydney Grammar Schools. Later at St. Paul's College; St. John's (Oxon.) and Inns of Court, London.