

McCULLOCH, JOHN EDWARD.

LL.B. : Sergeant, 17th General Service Reinforcements,
A.I.F., England.

Enlisting in September, 1916, was discharged in October—
“services otherwise required”—and mobilised as Military Representative from September to November. Then was Assistant Organising Secretary, N.S.W. Recruiting Committee, till November, 1917, resignation being tendered in April but not accepted till November. Re-enlisting in January, 1918, and sailing 4th September, served till demobilisation.

Early education at Cootamundra, Burwood and Homebush Public and Sydney High Schools.