

Catherine DAVIS has moved from Wurtzburg to Munich to carry out studies under the Second part of her scholarship. Jan Roberts (COLEMAN) and her husband are back from overseas and living in Melbourne. They have a small son. Marilyn BRYCE and Jill ROBINSON have received their librarianship diplomas from the University of New South Wales and are working with the Mitchell Library. Jenny Kain (HUGHES) is teaching in Canberra. Pam HOOKE is working in Brisbane with the Zoology Department of the University of Queensland. Anna Deacon (BASSETT) and her husband are in Edinburgh where he has been studying for his M.R.C.P. Anna has been teaching in a co-ed secondary school twelve miles out of Edinburgh and very much enjoying the work. They see Robin Brown (WINES) and her husband frequently.

Wendy GOODMAN has returned to Australia after two years in England. She has a job with the Commonwealth Department of Education supervising Colombo Plan students. Kerry McFayden (KIRBY) is teaching in London where her husband is an architect. Barbara Dowe (KIRBY) is living in Brighton, Sussex, where her husband has a hospital appointment. Ann French (WOLLNOUGH) returned from overseas in 1966 and took up a post as part-time tutor in English at the University of New South Wales. She has now moved to Melbourne. Juliet Clarke (NIELD) lives in Newcastle and has two boys and a girl. Rosalind Gordon (NIELD) has a small son Harry. Merrilee Webster (GILHOLME) lives in Cowra where her husband is a chemist. Elaine STEVENS is teaching in Canberra. Nancy Lawrie (PRICE) is working with a handicapped workshop in Canberra.

Joyce Robertson (ATKINS) is teaching French at Cremorne Girls' High School. She is on a Committee for Languages and the Community which is looking into opportunities available for linguists in industry, commerce etc. Professor Judith Robinson (WHITE) is one of the moving forces behind the committee. Felicity Lynch (BAILEY-TART) has gained her post-graduate library diploma from the University of New South Wales. She works at the Public Library. Millicent MARION is working in the Nuclear Medicine Research Unit at R.P.A.H. She recently had a holiday in New Guinea travelling on the S.S. Bulolo. Also on board were Faith Evans (TILLYARD) and her husband.

Margaret Nyman (ALLEN) is working in the Commonwealth Department of Works as an architect. Kate OGILVIE will be overseas for a few months this year. Dr. Allison CAMPBELL is working in Manchester in Social Medicine. The basic aim of her work is to evaluate various forms of residential care for mentally subnormal adults. Margaret Scrivenor (KNEEBONE) is living in Bangkok where her husband is with SEATO. She is working in geographical research with the Thai Applied Science Research Corporation. Margaret is setting up a department of Basic Environmental Data.

Jean Pulley (CRAWFORD) is teaching forms 5 and 6 agriculture at St. George High School. Myril BOWMAN-LLOYD has been living in London and plans to return to Australia in 1967. Margaret McCorkindale is taking her fourth nursing certificate in Occupational Health. Mary Andersen (MITCHELMORE) is teaching English in a School in Hobart, while her husband is resident at the Royal Hobart Hospital. Clare Docker (WATSON) is teaching history and English at Cumberland High School. Ann Bishop (KNOWLES) is a reference Librarian in the Premier's Department, and has just moved into the new State Office Block.

NEWS OF STAFF AND TUTORS

Miss Freda MANN retired at the end of 1966 and is having a long and well earned holiday after her years of service to College.

In recent letters from Siri Liengjayetz (PROMBOONYA) she was anticipating twelve months in Edinburgh to study Education. Anne Eyland (WHYTE) and her husband are still at Aberdeen where Anne is engaged in Genetics research. Lyn Sellwood (BEDFORD) awarded Ph.D. for her thesis "Oogenea in the Chiton Sypharohites Septentriones (Mollusca Polyphlaphora)" and is now with the University of N.S.W.

Pam Hitchcock (JEWETT) and sons Christopher and Edward moved to Toronto in August where her husband has been appointed assistant Prof. of Planning. Dora Long-Price (HADZISTELIOU) recently went to Long Island where David is engaged in research in solid state physics at Brookhaven. Milla Cozart gained her M.A. at Harvard and is now working for her Ph.D. Pam Peters (TERNOUTH) and husband recently returned to Sydney after 12 months spent mainly in California.

DEATHS

Leigh Hamilton BAIRD, B.A. 21/9/66 - in Canberra - in College 1921-1923.

Jane Margaret BALLANTINE, M.B., Ch.M. Died while on the staff of the Brisbane General Hospital in 1966. She had been on the staff since 1935. In College 1915-21.

Wendy BUTLER, 26/11/66 aged 20 years. In College 1965-1966 studying medicine.

M. Eleanor Green (WATSON) M.A. 3/9/66 - In college 1904-1906.

Mary "Molly" Hamilton (HALL), in New Zealand at the end of 1966. Contemporaries will remember her gift for writing, e.g. Freshers' Play of 1928. In College 1928-1931.

Naomi Newman (ALEXANDER) V.Sc., 4/12/66 in U.S.A. as a result of a car accident. In college 1962-1963.