

✠COHEN, CECIL HOPE.

B.A., Law: Lieutenant, Siege Artillery, B.E.F., France and England.

Enlisting in London in April, 1916, served with unit in France until shell-shocked in August, 1917, subsequently being Instructor of Signals, Catterack Camp, England.

Died of Illness, England, November, 1918, and was buried in Willesden Jewish Cemetery (Middlesex).

Early education at Sydney Grammar School.