Dear Sir,

In reply to your Memo. re Dr. C. B. Burden, the only information there is to give you is, that he offered his services to the Military Authorities soon after the war broke out, but was deferred until he had passed the final examination & taken his degree. When this occurred in July last, he again immediately offered his services & was appointed Captain in the A. M. C., A. I. F. After three months in camp at Nutcham & Gawler, he left for England as Medical Officer on H. M. Transport "Port Melbourne" - on Oct. 23rd & is still on the voyage. Previous to attending the University he was for several years a pupil at Princes Alfred College.

I am, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
J. B. Burden
