

nell made his debut here, and broke the ice. Since then quite a number of illustrious personages have dined in Hall and stayed to "coff.," and then addressed this bevy of youth and beauty. Among these brave men are Bishop Long, our last lion, the Chancellor, Sir Robert Garran, Dr. Harvey Sutton, and Professor Tucker. Dr. Kate Knowles also gave us a very interesting account of her work in Kashmir and Woomooloo.

PAST AND PRESENT.

Come you again or come no more
Across the world you keep the pride,
Across the world we mark the score.

—Newbolt.

Extract from letter from Miss Macdonald (42 Ordnance-road, London, N.W. 8): "My Gruner is framed now, and hangs in the dining-room, and I make Evelyn (Dr. Dickinson) sit at the head of the table, and sit myself at the side that I may always see it. It is quite lovely, and please tell anyone who helped to give it that I like it better every day."

Dr. Isabel Ormiston was married to Major Chudleigh Garvice, D.S.O., O.B.E., on January 31, 1920. The wedding took place at Alexandria, Egypt.

Dr. Grace Cordingley was married to Reginald Bridge, of Glen Islay, Wandandian, on March 6, 1920, at St. Philip's Church, Sydney.

Dr. Elma Sandford has been appointed to the Civil Hospital at Bagdad. She has had previous experience of the East in India, having made a special study there of diseases of the eye.

Vera Irwin Smith has been appointed representative of the University Senate on the board of directors of Manning House. She takes the place of Mrs. Peden, who has resigned.

Mrs. Dryburgh (Dorothy Glasson) has a son.

Dr. Marjorie Little has returned to Australia, after having spent two years in France in charge of a pathological laboratory.

Dr. E. Bourne, formerly of the W.A.A.C.S., is in England. She was demobilised early in January.

Mrs. Killen (Margaret Rice) has a son.

Marjorie Pollard is teaching at Parramatta High School.

Mary Lilley has been appointed Lecturer and Demonstrator in Pharmacology.

Erica Prince was married in Cairo last year to Lieutenant W. H. P. MacKenzie, a New Zealand graduate. She has since been to the World Student Conference at Geneva, and is returning through America to Australia, in time for the Armidale Conference in December. Lieutenant MacKenzie is to take the position of general secretary to the Australian Student Movement.

Dr. Aileen Mitchell is a resident at the Mater Misericordiae Hospital, North Sydney.

Dr. Lorna Beveridge is a Resident at Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney.

Mrs. Gentle (Eileen Connor) has a son.

Kathleen Crago is teaching at the Presbyterian Ladies' College, Pymble

Ruth Saunders is teaching at the District School, Kempsey.

Enid Armstrong has returned to Australia. She spent three years nursing in England, during the war, at a hospital near Leicester.

Kathleen Cadell is a masseuse at Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney.

Dorothy Morton was, for a time, at the same hospital, but is now with Dr. Royle.

Esther Tuckey and Dora Burkitt are teaching at Frensham.

Jean and Margery Anderson are enjoying the delights of travel. They are now in England, and have also visited Scotland.

Dorothy Shaw was married on August 24, 1920, to the Right Rev. Jonkheer T. A. Mazel, at St. Alban's Church, Regent-street, Sydney.
