FRANCE.
 During the period 1st. July 1918 to 31st. December 1918. Under command.
 This Officer has performed exceptionally good service. He has displayed indefatigable energy in the performance of all his duties as Veterinary Officer and to his untiring efforts this unit to a large extent owes at present and has owed for a considerable period its power to maintain its mobility.
 Under the most trying circumstances he has never failed to be present when required. His unflinching devotion to duty is most conspicuous.
 His determination to secure and obtain at all times the best possible results in saving horse flesh, and in bettering the condition of the horses of this Brigade is a matter which is in my opinion deserving of special recognition.
