

14 Alfred Street, Prahran, Victoria.

February 2. 1895-

The Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, and Members of the Council of the University of Adelaide.
Gentlemen,

I have the honour to inform you that I am an applicant for the position of Lecturer in Classics and Comparative Philology at the Adelaide University - during the months of March, April, and May.

I took my B.A. Degree in 1892 with Final Honours (Second Class) in the School of Classics and Comparative Philology at the University of Melbourne and had the M.A.
Degree conferred upon me in March 1894.

During the past two years I have been busily engaged in teaching the classics with excellent results as my testimonials shew, to which I beg respectfully to invite your attention.

I have the honour to be,
Gentlemen,

your obedient servant
D.M.R. Coghill M.A. (Melb.)
