

NORMAN, EDWIN PHILIP.

M.C., B.Sc., B.E., A.M.I.E.Aust. : Captain, 4th Divisional Engineers and 1st Army Troops Coy., A.I.F., Gallipoli, France and England.

Enlisting 17th February, 1915, and sailing 10th August with reinforcements, was with 1st Field Coy. as sapper until invalided to hospital 1st December. Assisted to form 13th Field Coy. at Tel-el-Kebir in March, 1916, and, crossing to France, served with it till September, 1917, when transferred to 12th, where mostly in charge owing to absence of O.C. Was wounded 12th June, 1917, at Blauen Molen, Messines, and in September at Zonnebeke. In August, 1918, was sent to Brightlingsea, appointed O.C. 1st Army Troops Coy. in December and joined Demobilisation Department in London, 26th January, 1919, serving until demobilisation. Promoted lieutenant,