Adelaide,

April, 1902.

To

The Council of the University of Adelaide.

Gentlemen,-

Having ourselves received great benefit from Professor Douglas's lectures, we venture to express our extreme regret that this University is about to lose the services of so distinguished a scholar and able a teacher, who in his lectures sets the noblest ideals before his students; and we respectfully beg that you will ask him to withdraw his resignation, or- failing that- to defer it till the end of this year, and so prevent a serious interruption to the studies of those taking the History and Literature courses.

We are,

Gentlemen,

Yours obediently,

Harry R. Wooten.

John Colville.
