

MURRAY, JACK KEITH.

B.A., B.Sc.Agr., Diploma in Military Science : Captain, Sea Transport Service and A.A.V.C., A.I.F., France.

Seconded from University Scouts to camps and, being medically unfit for full Active Service, was allowed to enlist for Transport Service 31st May, 1916. Was appointed captain "for the voyage only", sailed as Adjutant on "Kyarra" 3rd June and was later Adjutant on "Ayrshire", returning in February, 1917. Re-enlisting as private in Veterinary Details 26th November, served until after the Armistice, although sick at 5th Canadian Casualty Clearing Station, Mauberge in November, 1918. Later, under A.I.F. Education Scheme, won National Diploma in Dairying (Scotland)—1st place, returning via Canada and U.S.A. in March, 1920.

Professor of Agriculture, University of Queensland. Principal, Queensland Agricultural College.

Early education at State Primary Schools and St. Joseph's College. Later at St. John's.