

Clarendon.
6 Dec 1916

Memo

Esmond K. Denton left Sydney last April as Sergeant in charge of a section of Engineers for Egypt. - took them to Tel-el-Kebir and after two days was sent to England (Salisbury Plain) thence to Engineers' Camp at Christchurch and is now at a School of Instruction for Engineers as Sergeant in charge of a section (being ineligible for Commissioned rank because of his youth.)

His present address is
No 7822

Sergeant E. K. Denton
17 Reinforcements.
2nd Field Coy Engineers
1st Divisional Training Coy
A.I.F.
London.

Yours faithfully.

E. K. Denton