Dear Mr Eardley,

I have to thank you for your circular of 28th July, with the Roll of Honour enclosed. The names of the men who fell makes sad but proud reading after fourteen years, when one recalls the many faces one knew; men like Jack Laurie, Wilfrid Jose, Charlie Bagoz, John Blacket, Len Hornabrook, Alan Mover, Gordon Munro Harold Armitage, Geoff Robin, Clive Burden Frank Davies; several of whom were Arts men of my time in 1913 with whom I sat in lectures or played football and cricket.

I see you are marking the names of those who received wounds; ~~so~~ you can include me among those.

Bellevue

I can see no other errors or omissions in your Roll.

Trusting things are going well with Adelaide Varsity and with kind regards, I am

Yours sincerely

Paul Beaumont
