

✠ SAXBY, KENNETH KNOWLTON—Continued.

Killed in Action, Menin Road Battle, 20th September, 1917, and buried at Cable Head, near Hooze, Westhoek.

Member S.U. Scouts.

Peter Nicol Russell Scholar.

The " K. K. SAXBY " Prize was founded in 1918 by his father in his memory.

Early education at Sydney High School. Later at Technical College (Diploma).

" He died as he lived, nobly."

" He had much gallant work to his credit before he rejoined the Battn. and he always showed the same splendid devotion to duty in any call . . . during his whole association with the unit."—Captain.