

Mrs. Jitts (Audrey Schumaker) is working at Perth University.

Fannia Goldberg-Rudkowski (Weingarten) has her M.A. from Bryn Mawr and hopes soon to complete her Ph.D. She is now living in California.

Ellice Nosworthy paid a flying visit to Europe and U.S.A. earlier in the year and is now back in Sydney.

Isabel Ormiston is doing missionary work in Japan.

Erica Bastian is now Mrs. Veevers and on her way to England, where she plans to do post-graduate work at London University.

Mary Collier is Graduate Secretary to the Vice-Chancellor, University of Sydney.

Barbara Cooke is Secretary in the English Department, University of Sydney.

Margaret Whitfeld is on the London staff of The Sydney Morning Herald.

Norma McEachern is studying at Birkbeck College, London University.

M. Piddington is Principal of the Women's College, Brisbane, and is on a visit to England.

Dr. Puckey is Medical Superintendent at the Rachel Forster Hospital.

Margaret Telfer is Deputy Registrar, University of Sydney.

Mrs. C. R. Ford (Margaret Thomas) is working with the Australian Inland Mission in the Northern Territory.

Yee Teh Lu is back in Singapore, having completed her M.Ed. course at Yale.

Judith Leadley (Mrs. Barbour) is working for her M.A. as well as looking after her husband and Louise (a year old).

Una Fitzhardinge is Headmistress of St. Catherine's School, Waverley.

Stephanie Fogle (Way) is in practice at Yass.

Joan Kater is on the staff of the Faculty of Veterinary Science, University of Sydney.

Barbara Smith has a practice in New Zealand.

Adele Millerd, Ph.D., is Senior Lecturer in Biochemistry, University of Sydney.

Hope Kellow is working in the Finnish Legation.

Judith Kennedy is on the staff of the Cumberland planning authority.

Judith Barbour is working as a secretary in the Anthropology Department of Sydney University.