

†LASKER, ROBERT SYDNEY—Continued.

Killed in Action by enemy anti-aircraft gun fire, France, 20th May, 1918, and buried in Auloyne Communal Cemetery.

Early education at Newcastle High School.

“ If I should fall, my presence may be sought
In all the teeming beauty of the earth,
With every lovely thing that God hath wrought
I shall be one, and find in it new birth.

He loved all these—he loved all lovely things:
And from them now his loving spirit sings.”—R.S.L.