

†GREGSON, WILLIAM HILDER.

B.A., B.E., L.S. : Sergeant, 7th Field Coy., Engineers, A.I.F.,
Egypt and France.

Enlisting in July, 1915, and sailing in November, served three months on Suez Canal and, crossing to France in March, 1916, fought at Pozières, where wounded 5th August, and in Somme sector till death. Promoted corporal, 8th March, 1916, and sergeant, 16th July.

Killed in Action, Flers, 14th November, 1916—at first reported Wounded and Missing—and buried in Warlencourt British Cemetery.

Early education at All Saints' College, Bathurst. Later at St. Paul's.