

BENJAMIN, ALVA.

M.B., Ch.M. : Captain, R.A.M.C., Salonika.

Sailing for London in July, 1915, as lieutenant and crossing to Salonika in February, 1916, served as Sanitary Officer, Western Area, from August, 1916, until July, 1918, when transferred as Sanitary Officer in charge of British units attached to Royal Serbian Army. Was also Surgeon Specialist, 41st General Hospital. Demobilised in London, August, 1919, and appointed to East Dulwich Infirmary. Promoted captain, July, 1916. Mentioned in Despatches.

Renwick Scholar and Smith Prizeman.

Early education at Darlinghurst Public and Sydney High Schools.