Dear Mr Hodge.

Replying to your
D. P. Gordon.

Inquiring re my son
His full name is Douglas Peel.
His rank was Driver in the Army Service Corps. He went to Egypt &
Gallipoli with the First Anzaco Division & was present at the great landing April 25. 1515. He served 6 months at Gallipoli & was in the Suvla Bay battles. Eventually he was invalided with fever & finally he then to Australia Military Medical Board was declared by the active service medically unfit for further service. He returned & received his discharge with 160/- to his employer with Elders Smith & Co & has been sent to that firm to its Sydney office. He is gradually recovering his health.

Sincerely yours David J. Gordon
