

1 Kerry JAMES left in October for Durban and has been working for an advertising agency. At present she is in Europe and her address is C/- C.B.C. Bank, London. Helen Millner (PHILLIPS) begins a nine months course in Developmental Paediatrics and Child Assessment at London University in October. This was the result of a W. H. O. Fellowship and she will be staying at William Goodenough House. After the course is completed she will visit Sweden and Denmark to look at Child Health Service.

2 Ann BOYD has gone to the University of York on a scholarship. A number of her compositions have been given a first hearing in Sydney. Oriole James (CLARSON) will be living in England for some time. Virginia LOXTON worked for four months in Washington on public relations and has now gone over to London.

3 Alison Rosen (CAMPBELL) has moved to London working on a project concerned with the quality of care provided for children in different sizes and types of children's homes. The project comes under the Department of Child Development in the University of London Institute of Education.

4 On April 25th the London Old Students' had a reunion at Joanna WARRAND's flat. Jo., Vere HOLE and Ann MOFFATT were the organizers, and although only a few people attended there was lively discussion among those present including Coral BELL, Merilyn BRYCE, Caralie ARMSTRONG and Ann Burke (PARKER) and "Guest of Honour", Ethel Bensusan (de LISSA) and her daughter. Mrs. Bensusan was delighted to have a room named after her in the Langley Wing (from the U.K. Old Students) and looks forward to staying in it later this year!

5 Christine DOBBIN gained her D. Phil. at Oxford in 1967 on thesis "The growth of urban leadership in Bombay City". She returned in 1968 from Lancaster University where she was an Assistant Lecturer and is now a Research Fellow in Department of Pacific History at A. N. U. Christine has a book in preparation "Basic Documents in History of India and Pakistan".

6 Jennifer Kain (HUGHES) writes that after teaching mathematics since 1964 at Dickson High School (ACT) she is now looking after her daughter Alexandra. Her husband is an electrical engineer with the A. C. T. Electricity Authority. Anne (Barbara) Ayrtton (DOYLE) is on the publicity staff of the A. N. U. Press and has a son of 17 and a daughter of 15. Suzanne Hayes (JACOBS) is living in Canberra after spending some years in Africa. Her husband is Manager-Producer of the Canberra Repertory Society. Suzanne has taught in Canberra and was Research Assistant to a seminar on the Performing Arts which was held at the Australian National University in May. She also writes occasional book reviews for the Canberra Times, broadcasts fortnightly on Morning Call and is on a panel of the local A.B.C. arts programme called "Spotlight".

7 Annabel WHEELER and Martha RUTLEDGE both living at Burton Hall A. N. U. Mary WATT is doing a music course at Canberra School of Music, and Wendy Bendeich (GOODMAN) is an administrative assistant with Department of Education, Canberra. Frances NEWMAN is in her second year at Canberra Hospital. Elsie McCarthy (BRAMELL) has recently moved to Canberra.

8 Harriet Hromas (WILSON) is working as a dietitian at Prince Henry Hospital. Kerry McFadyen (KIRBY) is working towards her master's degree in Biology. Millicent Christian (LUCKETT) is attending the University of Sydney Post Graduate course in Philosophy. She is President of the United Associations of Women, concerned with equality of status and opportunity for women.

9 Jan Ralston (HASKINS) is enjoying her work with the Student Health Service at Sydney University. Eleanor Earlam (BLACKWELL) retired this year from the Commonwealth Department of Education. Heather BRANSON is a lecturer in anatomy at the University of Queensland. She recently won the Young Career Woman Quest. Susan THOMSON is studying at the Sorbonne on a French Government scholarship. Ruth YELLAND is doing her M. A. at the University of Sydney.

10 Kit ENGLISH had a cruise in Fiji, Tonga and Noumea in July. Nancy Lurie (PRICE) and husband have been touring Northern Australia, and have bought a home in Cairns. Barbara SMITH visited Sydney from New Zealand in May for the Australian Veterinary Conference. Myril Lloyd (BOWMAN) is now living in Kirribilli after some years spent painting in France.

11 Nina MYLNE is teaching at Redlands. She is engaged to David Champion and they are to be married in September. Marilyn TRUSCOTT is going overseas for two years. She plans to go on an Archaeology dig in Greece. Marion RHYDDERCH is going overseas for a short trip. Roslyn SIMMONDS is teaching at Manly Boy's High School. Sarah PRINCE is teaching at Ascham. Judy NOBLE has moved back to Lismore.