

There were a very large number of applicants for the position of Principal and the Council was extremely gratified by their standard and is confident that, in obtaining the services of a person with such a wealth and variety of experience and background, Mrs West will prove an able successor to Dr Star.

The members of the Women's College Union welcome Mrs West to this challenging and rewarding position and look forward to the opportunity of meeting with her early in the New Year.

NEWS

At the luncheon on June 28th 1980, Professor Alice Tey spoke on 'The Soviet Constitution, Law and the Citizen Today.' The audience was most interested in the exposition by one who knows the law and who has also lived in Russia.

Libby PRIOR has completed her Ph.D. in Philosophy at Monash University. She presented a paper at the Australasian Association of Philosophy Conference held in Sydney in August. She is a Philosophy Tutor at Melbourne University.

Rosalind HULL is nursing at Westmead Hospital in Redbank House, the children's Psychiatric Wing.

Georgina Hart (WARDELL) who is librarian at Shore, spent 3 months this year in the U.S.A. looking at Archives in Independent Schools.

Ruth BAILEY is studying for a Ph.D. in Pharmacology. Jenny BINNIE married Mark Woodwell and is living at Seaforth. Genivive Cumberland (CROCKET) has two children.

Lyn FISHER is a dietician at the Children's Hospital, Camperdown. Lorraine HARLEY married Dig Bowen. Helen Frommer (PETERSON) is studying Medicine at the University of New South Wales. Sue Arnott (PRESCOTT) and husband are in Switzerland. Ros SCOBLE married Michael Baker. Helen England (SCOTT) has a daughter Michelle.

Charlotte SINCLAIR married Michael Middleton and they are now living at The Lagoons, Binnalong, near Yass. Jane SHANNON married Laurie Gillette.

Johanna Platt (BISHOP) has been helping her husband run Kent Regional Opera in the U.K. and the Company celebrates its 10th anniversary this year. Their daughter Rebecca (13) made her debut as Principal singer in Britten's 'Turn of the Screw' in a part usually sung by a small adult but felt by the critics to be much more successful with a real child in the role.

Jill Mc Kerral (FORREST) is the University of Sydney Carillon Scholar for 1980. She is also Assistant Editor of the Medical Journal of Australia.

Spoke to Myril BOWMAN LLOYD at the Diamond Jubilee Dinner of the Australian Federation of University Women - N.S.W. Mrs Lloyd gained her B.A. in 1909, then her M.A. and also studied Massage (now Physio) and worked in hospitals in the First World War. She became a sculptor and painter and has held many exhibitions. Mrs Lloyd was in College during the term as Principal of Miss Louisa McDonald whose portrait hangs in College. There were only 32 students in College then, and Mrs Lloyd remembers how Miss McDonald would wait up personally for anyone who was out at a dance. She also tells of Miss McDonald leading compulsory morning prayers in her 'beautiful Scots voice.'

Diane MACLEAN married Wayne Cahill and is a solicitor at Minter, Simpson & Co., and is President of the Women Lawyers' Association of N.S.W. and a member of the Law Society's Young Lawyers' Committee. She attended the National Convention on the Mid-Term Review of the U.N. Decade for Women as a delegate for N.S.W. women.

Women's College Union Secretary, Liz MORLEY is a solicitor with Hunt and Hunt and is planning an extended holiday in Europe in 1981.

Jan McCREDIE is now Associate Professor of Surgery at the University of Sydney. She and Dr Barbara Field are undertaking a comprehensive survey of limb