Sir:-

In reply to your letter
re service in the Great War.
I have to say that I enlisted in April 1917 in S.A., left Sydney N.S.W. in the Australian Army.

Saw service in England, France
& Belgium.

Returned to Australia in May 1919 & discharged from the A.I.F. and returned to the Adelaide University.

The Military authorities must keep some very good records
as I still belong to the Australian Army Reserve.

I have W
Guthrie
(C. G. Evans)

The Registrar,
The University
Adelaide.
