

MACKAY, IVEN GIFFARD—Continued.

March, 1916, remained with battn. till 1st March, 1918, when placed in command of 1st Machine Gun Battn. and on 6th June appointed to command 1st Australian Infantry Brigade, retaining command until 4th April, 1920, after return to Australia. Promoted major, 14th July, 1915 ; lieutenant-colonel, 18th April, 1916 ; colonel (temporary brigadier-general), 6th June, 1918. Made a C.M.G. in 1918, awarded D.S.O. in January, 1917, and Bar* in June and Mentioned in Despatches twice.

Faculty Secretary and Student Adviser 1925-32. President, The Union.

A.M.F. : Major-General, Commander, 2nd Division, N.S.W.

Early education at Grafton Public School and Newington College. Later at St. Andrew's ; and Emmanuel College, Cambridge.

* " While acting as Brigadier his prompt action and extreme resolution in repelling an enemy counter attack showed leadership of a very high order."—London Gazette, 18th June, 1917.