

“Lodge St. Alban”

has nominated William James Ellery Phillips as a person to whom the “St. Alban” Scholarship shall be awarded by the University of Adelaide, but the said nomination is made upon the conditions (amongst others) that the said William James Ellery Phillips if the said Scholarship shall be awarded to him or her shall and will during his or her tenure thereof submit himself or herself to, and obey the statutes, regulations, and discipline, for the time being, of the University of Adelaide so far as they shall apply to him or her, and will also be subject to the terms of the Indenture made the twelfth day of December, in the year 1890, between the Trustees (therein named) for the said Lodge and the said University, and also to the existing rules of the said Lodge in relation to the said Scholarship and the holders thereof, and to such other rules relating to the said Scholarship and the holders thereof as the said Lodge shall make from time to time.

Dated at Adelaide this 13th day of March 1913. ~~+89-~~
