

Clarence Parr

Dec. 6, 1916

Dear Mr. Hodge,

My son, W. J. M. Bried, is "somewhere in France".

He gave up his fine
position as the Broken Hill South
Mine to enlist in the mining corps.
From private he became <sup>captain.</sup> ~~lieutenant.~~

By letter received last week
I was glad to hear that he was well.

Yours faithfully
W. J. M. Bried