Dear Sir,

Re War Memorial Roll.

I beg to draw your attention to the case of A. Lumb,
shown on your list among the Arts undergraduates.
Lumb was not killed on service, but contracted T.B.
on the voyage home, and died. I am almost certain before discharge. I do not know whether this justifies his inclusion in the list of those who fell,
but simply raise the point for your consideration.

In addition, I may mention that I was wounded—
that fact is not shown in your Record.

Yours faithfully
Max Gerlach
