

MEDICAL DEGREES.

PRESENTATION BY VICE-CHANCELLOR.

To allow those who have passed their final examinations to register and take up practice, the University Senate, through its Vice-Chancellor (Dr. Cecil Purser), presented the degrees of Bachelor of Medicine in the Great Hall yesterday afternoon. In all, 92 successful candidates presented themselves. There was a large assembly of relations and friends, who enthusiastically applauded throughout the half-hour which the ceremony occupied. On the platform, in addition to Dr. Purser, were Professor A. E. Mills (Dean of the Faculty of Medicine), Professor M. W. MacCallum (Acting Warden), Professor E. R. Holme (Dean of the Faculty of Arts), Professor Sir Edgeworth David, Professor F. P. Sandes (Faculty of Surgery), and Mr. W. A. Selle (Acting Registrar).
