

WALLACE, ROBERT STRACHAN.

LL.D., M.A. (Aberd.), M.A. (Oxf.), M.A. (Melb.) ; Vice-Chancellor, Sydney, 1927 ; formerly Assistant-Professor and Lecturer in English at Aberdeen, also at Aberdeen Training College, and for candidates at Oxford for the Indian Civil Service ; Professor of English Language and Literature at Melbourne University, 1912-1927, Dean of the Faculty of Arts, 1917-27, President of the Professorial Board, 1924-27.

On service with A.I.F., 1917-19, 2nd Lieut. Field Artillery Reinforcements, in April, 1918, attached A.I.F. Education School, Cambridge ; Lieut. and Superintendent of Studies, Education Service, A.I.F., at Corps School, Rue, afterwards on Salisbury Plain ; demobilised November 3rd, 1919.

Early education at Gordon's College, Aberdeen : Blackwell Prizeman and Murray Scholar, Aberdeen ; Exhibitioner, Christ Church, Oxford.