

EAMES, WILLIAM L'ESTRANGE.

C.B., C.B.E., V.D., M.B. (Syd. and Dubl.), B.A., B.Ch.,
B.A.O. (Dubl.): Brevet-Colonel, R.A.M.C., B.E.F., France.

Enlisting in London 16th August, 1914, served with Australian Voluntary and 32nd Stationary Hospitals till 1918, returning via Canada in 1919. Made a C.B.E. in 1920 and Commander, Order of Aviz, Portugal, and Mentioned in Despatches.

Pre-War: Joined N.S.W. A.M.C., 1891, and served in South African War as Major, Commanding No. 2 Bearer Coy. Made a C.B. in 1900 and Mentioned in Despatches.

A.M.F.: P.M.O., N.S.W. Military District. Major General (retired).

Early education at Oswestry Grammar School. Later at Caius College, Cambridge, and Trinity College, Dublin.