

O. Gordon is engaged to Dr. Blashki, who has returned from the War with a Military cross.

H. Braye, Mona Ross, E. Sandford, and Marjory Ross are all Residents at R.P.A.H.

C. Moir was married to Dr. Wooster in England recently.

D. Voss is practising radiography in Macquarie-street—as locum for her fiancé, Dr. Sear, who went to the War.

College still swells the ranks of the staff of the Elizabeth-street Girls' High School. There are E. Read, M. Dunningcliff, J. Skillman, N. Griffin (Meares), L. Houison, C. Watson, C. Herbert, M. Fitzhardinge, and J. Brown.

R. Guiterman (Lion) is lecturing for the W.E.A.

M. Collisson has gone to America to lecture there.

L. Hamilton-Brown has been doing hospital work in Egypt and Palestine.

E. Bourne is in charge of a Red Cross Hospital in England.

A hockey match was arranged to be played between Old and Present College Students this year, but unfortunately the bad weather prevented it from being played. This was a great pity, as the Old Students' team was only got together with difficulty, and we could not postpone the match to any other date.

The Old Students' team was a strong one, and consisted of N. Griffin, H. Braye, L. Houison, M. Godfrey, M. Barrington, J. Brown, S. James, E. Sandford, L. Meares, R. Bray, and R. Lewers.

This seems a suitable opportunity of reminding Old Students of a fact which many of them apparently have forgotten, namely, that there is in existence an Old Students' Union. Apart from those living in the country and in other States, there still must be plenty who never enter College from one year's end to the other, unless they make a supreme effort and come to the annual party. Even then, if the party is a fancy dress one, they are too apathetic to come in fancy dress. The usual excuse is that one does not know anyone there after one has left for a year or two—but, after all, at Old Students' meetings it is one's own contemporaries that one meets, and it is surely the best opportunity we can have of seeing each other en masse, so to speak.

HOUSE COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

A general meeting of the College was held in the Common Room during the last week of third term, 1917; the Principal took the chair. The business was the election of Senior Student for 1918. Two people were nominated: Miss Philp and Miss Mitchell. Votes were taken, with the result that Miss Mitchell was elected. The latter then took the chair. It was decided that the House Committee should choose a sub-committee, consisting of a graduate representative and a representative from each floor in College, for the purpose of considering the proposed College blazer, and drawing up some rules concerning it. The meeting then adjourned, but the House Committee remained to choose the sub-committee. Those chosen were Dr. Bray, Miss Herring, Miss Black and Miss McConnel. The scheme, however, has since been abandoned till after the war, owing to the scarcity of suitable materials.

The usual annual general meeting was held in the dining hall on Thursday, April 4. The Principal took the chair. The election of the House Committee for the year, and also that of other office-bearers was proceeded with. The following were elected unopposed:—College Representative on the S.U.W.V.A., S. McConnel; Secretary, R. Hardy; Treasurer, M. Lane; Ordinary Member, D. Swanwick; Tennis Secretary, J. Ballantine; Tennis Treasurer, R. Saunders; Fresher Representative, C. Wilson; Editor and Librarian, B. Durie; Sub-Editor, M. Bertram; Sub-Librarian, C. Cameron; Science Librarian, A. Stuart; Maples Representative on House Committee, M. Lilley.

A letter was read from the secretary of the Inter-Collegiate Debates Committee, saying that the question of our joining in the Inter-Collegiate Debates would be carefully considered at the next meeting. They have since decided against our co-operation. With regard to debating in College itself, a few impromptu debates were held last term under the auspices and kindly guidance of M. Lilley and K. Crago, who are both well-known as eager and enthusiastic debaters (sic). College also debated against the University on the subject "That Modern Drama is Decadent." The opposition, however, won the day.
