Dear Sir.

previous to the outbreak of War, the School for Architecture had not commenced at the University of Sydney so that I did not have the opportunity of attending the Course. Although I had served my Articles with William Kenwood & Co. Architect and C.E. and also have proof showing that I was intending to attend in this capacity at the University.

Since returning I have attended lectures under professor Wilkinson and the Repatriation have provided me with a four year Course. I am attending now, and wish to apply for the Union Membership granted to returned Soldiers studying at the University.

Yours Sincerely
W. M. Matters
