

Reynella.

Memo

In answer to yours of 4th Dec.
Captain W. R. Reynell on the outbreak of war joined the Australian Voluntary Hospital with the rank of captain. He remained in France with them a year, when he went over to London to take charge of the Coulter where he now is. The Coulter Hospital is a military hospital of 100 beds in Grosvenor Square.

Yours truly
J. Reynell.

Dec. 8th / 1916