

✠SOLOMON, KENETH MAURICE HALGREN.

B.A. (Syd. et Oxon.), Law I: Lieutenant, 4th Battn.
Worcester Regt., Gallipoli.

Enlisting in London in August, 1914, joined the "London Irish", being commissioned three and a half months later in 11th Gloucesters. Served at Gallipoli in 29th Division, with 4th Worcesters until wounded 22nd August, 1915, and evacuated to hospital.

Died of Wounds, Devonport Hospital, England, 18th September, 1915, and was buried in Willesden Jewish Cemetery.

Early education at Sydney Grammar School. Later at St. John's College, Oxford, and the Inner Temple.

"We have lost a distinguished mind and what is finer, a true and valorous man."