

HEYDON, GEORGE ALOYSIUS MAKINSON—Continued.

in 1921. Promoted major, 20th June, 1917. Awarded M.C.* for work at Pozières and Mentioned in Despatches.

Lecturer, School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine.

Early education at Holy Cross College, Gladesville, Downside College, Somerset (thrice winner of Gregorian Medal—a record). Later at Christ's College, Cambridge.

* " For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during protracted operations. For four days he attended the wounded under incessant fire, carrying them to his dressing station when the stretcher-bearers had become casualties."—London Gazette, 22nd September, 1916.